Make-up policy: Missed classes may be made up anytime during the current session. You may make up in advance of an anticipated absence or after an absence. You may go to any appropriate-level class where there is space available. All classes must be made up before the ending date of the series. Refunds: No refunds will be given after the first week of the series.

I understand that alignment-based yoga is a physical practice that necessitates my disclosing any medical conditions or concerns to the teacher before attending class. I understand that all Evergreen Yoga Center teachers are held to rigorous training standards, but that I will maintain responsibility for taking care of my own body in class.
